

MADCAPS 66th BENEFIT SHOW SPONSORSHIP & DONATION OPPORTUNITIES

MADCAPS: Mother and Daughters Club Assisting Philanthropies

Please join us in support of MADCAPS 65th Anniversary Benefit Show held on March 13th and 14th, 2026 at Brown Chapel, Point Loma Nazarene University!

Mission

The purpose of MADCAPS, as a private, nonprofit organization, is to involve mothers and daughters in direct service to and support of established philanthropic organizations. To further this purpose, mothers actively nurture the training of their daughters in philanthropic commitments, teaching personal responsibility, as well as responsibility to the needs of others, so that all members may fully realize the benefits of involvement in the community.

MADCAPS fulfills its mission by receiving generous support from community members like you.

History

MADCAPS was established in 1960, when a group of 27 mothers met to consider forming a mothers' and daughters' organization to support local philanthropies. On September 17, 1960, MADCAPS made its debut at a tea for 50 charter members and their daughters. To date, MADCAPS has distributed over $1,060,000 to local charities, and completed thousands of hours of direct community service.

Where We Are Now

Our membership has grown to include over 200 mothers and their daughters in grades 7th through 12th from Hillcrest, Mission Hills, Ocean Beach and Point Loma. Our group participates in year-round activities and fundraising so that all members may fully realize the benefits of involvement in the community. Since the 2023 season, MADCAPS has donated $130,000 to philanthropies and the girls have completed over 12,000 direct service volunteer hours.

Main philanthropic groups we serve with hours and financial contributions:
